

Policy and Advocacy. Gearing Up for 2022

Get Involved. Take Action.

Michigan United Conservation Clubs mission is uniting citizens to conserve, protect and enhance Michigan's natural resources and outdoor heritage. As a grassroots organization, our members set our policies about issues ranging from hunting and fishing regulations to firearms and natural resources conservation. Once our members have set specific policies, our staff go to work implementing them.

MUCC maintains a staff of dedicated conservation professionals whose jobs are to defend Michigan's outdoors heritage and natural resources every day. It is a job we truly enjoy and believe in. MUCC staff follow the policy positions that are established by MUCC members at Annual Convention and attend virtually every Natural Resources Commission (NRC), Michigan Department of Natural Resources (DNR) and legislative meeting and hearing available to ensure that MUCC members and Michigan's great outdoors are well represented.

But what we pursue in Lansing is set in motion by YOU. Under our new MUCC process and structure, the quarterly Conservation Policy Board meetings are your chance to get your ideas set into motion on their way to our Annual Convention. After meeting first in September and December, the last remaining chance to get a resolution to our Annual Convention is at the March 12, 2022 MUCC Conservation Policy Board meeting. Get your resolutions ready! Send any proposed policy resolutions to Justin Tomei at jtomei@mucc.org.

MUCC's members establish the organization's policies and priorities each year at MUCC's Annual Convention in June through resolutions proposed by MUCC individual members, clubs, regions or MUCC's Board of Directors. The Conservation Policy Board meetings are the one place where MUCC's members can bring forth resolutions that may go on to MUCC's Annual Convention. You can find the results of past Conservation Policy Board meetings and resolutions already heading to our Annual Convention here:

This landing page will be your destination for all the materials enclosed in this packet, including Annual Convention registration forms and background on MUCC's policy-setting process. If you are interested in writing a resolution and are looking for an example, take a look at the policies that were passed at the recent Annual Conventions and the Guidelines for Considering Resolutions. If you want to know if we have a past policy on a specific issue or need assistance with research, please contact MUCC's Policy Assistant Justin Tomei at jtomei@mucc.org or by calling (517)-371-1041.

We hope you will consider participating in the MUCC policy-setting process this March and hope to see you at the 2022 MUCC Annual Convention!
